

Give your brand's care a lasting form.

A gift for a valued partner, a story from your business, or artwork that meets people in everyday spaces.
Begin with the purpose of your collaboration and find a fitting artistic expression together.

Artwork and settings are illustrations. Production and collaboration follow the agreed project plan.

Three ways to work together.

These works illustrate creative directions. Collaboration details follow the plan agreed by both parties.

A World from a Single Sheet

Corporate art gifts

Clients • Business partners • Employee milestones

Begin with the recipient's photographs, shared experiences and a message of thanks. Portrait paintings can hold a career or a relationship; pet miniatures suit people who treasure their animal companions.

You can also discuss a company-funded gift allocation, allowing recipients to share their own photographs and preferences. Redemption, photograph approval and delivery are agreed in the project plan.

Art for your brand

Founding stories • Brand anniversaries • Spaces

A Horizon Folded in Paper

A first shop, an important building, an early idea or a brand symbol can begin the work. Translate a business story into art that stays in an office, a shop or beside a valued partner.

First agree on the story, intended setting and image usage, then discuss composition, size and production. Series extensions and other collaboration ideas are assessed for the project.

Display & referral partnerships

Pet services • Wedding photography • Home spaces

Shiba in the Great Wave

Introduce JIYI through services and places your customers already know. Partners connect suitable requests; JIYI handles artwork consultation, planning, production and delivery.

Display arrangements, referral tracking, partner rewards and settlement are agreed before collaboration. To begin with one artwork in one space, explore JIYI • City Gallery.
